predominance of selling over buyers orders in the narrow market. When prices ceased their slow, downward tendency the market fell into a protound duliness and neglect, thus reflecting the unwillingness of any buyers to take stocks on an upward scale of prices. So argued the room traders whose operations are devoted to following the movements of larger operators. As the meager dealings were almost wholly made up of the room traders' transactions, they were an advance of 3½c. The closing price for May was 36c. July wheat closed 366 it up and September 3c higher. Corn is unchanged to 366 kg higher. Oats were up 3c to 366 kg. Provisions closed 166 like off.
